Dispensational Eschatology is doing the Church a great disservice through the rapid changing views of yet another Antichrist that is going to rule the world for seven years and bring about a horrifying tribulation before the return of Christ. Their creative imagination is concealing that Man of Sin, the Son of Perdition that has been within the Church since the Second Century.

Three brothers. Power beyond reckoning. And a terrible betrayal. Adrian De Vere is the most powerful and charismatic politician on the planet. To many he heralds a future filled with peace and prosperity. Jason De Vere controls a third of the world's media through his communications empire VOX. Brilliant and tenacious, little happens in the world without him knowing. Nick, international playboy (and archaeologist), is dying, a victim of his own recklessness. He has made a remarkable discovery he hopes may save him, but does not know how or what the cost will be. Despite their wealth and fame, the brothers' family history is shadowed in lies. Now, with powerful forces both sacred and diabolical at play, one will betray the others — in an almost unimaginable way — There could be no bigger canvas for film-making. — Mark Ordesky (Executive Producer — Lord of the Rings) — Alec not only re-frames pre-history; she also imaginatively illustrates how the realm of spirit impacts the contemporary material world. — Ileen Maisel (Executive Producer for the Golden Compass) — This is the best work of fiction I have read since the last installment of Dean Koontz's Frankenstein series — Jim McDonald — 1340Mag — Online Entertainment Magazine

THIS IS NOT ABOUT RELIGION! but. SPIRITUAL REALITY! ...A glimpse of what is truly happening behind the invisible Veil of the Spirit, that thing which seperates the natural eyes from the supernatural. The battle of good versus evil, light versus darkness. A tale of the shroud of secrecy the Evil One will soon unveil...announcing that he in-fact is God! A chilling yet provocative series about the Antichrist that depicts the potential reality of his obscure beginning and of his prophetic coming!...the pending revealing Of himself and his rise to power!

Heman Melville's Captain Ahab referred briefly to a wife and son - and author Louise Gouge has built an entire book series around these unseen characters. The first two books focused on Hannah, his wife, Son of Perdition follows Timothy Jacobs, the son whose bitterness toward his father's godless reputation caused him to even reject his father's name. Timothy Jacobs spends his young life trying to prove that he is not like his father, the infamous Captian Ahab. Certain of his own goodness compared to the misguided mariners he observes at the Seaman's Mission where he volunteers, he feels no need for the salvation of Christ, which his mother and stepfather encourage him to accept. But when he is tragically wounded in battle, he is nearly consumed by rage at God, whom he now regards as unjust and uncaring. Not until he reads an account of his father's futile battle against the White Whale does Timothy realize the nature of his own sin and how both he and his father have misunderstood the merciful, loving nature of God.

Nothing is more important than what a person believes about Jesus Christ. To understand Christ correctly is to understand the very heart of God, Scripture, and the gospel. To get to the core of this belief, this latest volume in the Foundations of Evangelical Theology series lays out a systematic summary of Christology from philosophical, biblical, and historical perspectives—concluding that Jesus Christ is God the Son incarnate, both fully divine and fully human. Readers will learn to better know, love, trust, and obey Christ—unashamed to proclaim him as the only Lord and Savior. Part of the Foundations of Evangelical Theology series.

The two main characters are hurled forward into a catastrophic adventure as they see Biblical prophecy being played out in the government they serve.
